Stick Figure Through the Bible

2016 Catalog

Grapevine Studies is the leading Bible study method and curriculum for devoted teachers designed to help them simplify planning, engage students, and grow disciples.

About Grapevine

Grapevine Studies is the leading Bible study method and curriculum for devoted teachers designed to help them simplify planning, engage students, and grow disciples.

John and Dianna

Grapevine Studies is a family owned business located in central Wyoming. John and Dianna, together with their children, have developed this unique Bible study method. All of their children are homeschool and college graduates, serving the Lord in their respective fields.

John is an electrician and enjoys spending time with his family, hunting, shooting, and canoeing. John teaches adults in their church and is the President of Grapevine Studies.

Dianna is a homemaker and the primary author of Grapevine Studies. In addition to being a wife and mother, she also teaches a community exercise class and researches for John's Sunday School class. Dianna enjoys playing with her grandchildren, researching, and shopping when she is not involved in the day-to-day activities of Grapevine Studies.

Our Vision

Grapevine provides teachers a tool to confidently teach God's Word to their students. We believe students can understand the Bible and respond to the Gospel. Our desire is to see all students learn the process of Bible study in order to become confident and skilled in studying God's Word on their own and eventually teaching the Bible.

The Method

Young students learn the major characters and events through hearing the Bible, stick figuring the passage, and answering questions about lessons. The method for young children is Hear-Draw-Review.

Once students reach first grade we introduce them to the timeline of biblical characters and events. The first lesson in these studies are the timeline, then each subsequent lesson relates to a character or event on the timeline. The method for older students is Read-Draw-Review. With each progressive age, we attempt to introduce students to more Scripture, basic Bible geography, and how to use Bible study skills such as a Bible dictionary.

How did Grapevine Start?

The idea of Grapevine Studies began in 1999 at a VBS with 20 wiggly girls, on a hot July day. I (Dianna) was tasked with teaching the study for the day but I knew it would only last 45 minutes and I had over two hours to fill. Like all Bible teachers, I began praying for ideas and wisdom. Equipped with Bibles, blank paper, and colored pencils the girls and I began our journey. On Friday, when my husband (John) came to visit my class, these 20 girls could tell him Bible timeline, Genesis to Revelation, and show him how the Gospel began at Creation. What I taught in this class eventually turned into the stick figure Bible timeline. In 2001 we published our first study, the Old Testament Overview. Since then, many studies have been written and are being taught around the world.

Teaching Tip

Colored pencils tend to work best for our studies. Crayons tend to draw lines too large for the squares and it is harder to add details to the pictures. Markers tend to bleed through the pages. Prismacolor and Frixion pens come highly recommended by teachers.

Moses and the Exodus

Beginning in Goshen you will introduce your students to the events surrounding the birth of Moses. Learn the reason he left Egypt and what happened to him when he settled in Midian. As the story unfolds, you will see how God used Moses to interact with Pharaoh, the people of Egypt, and the children of Israel. Finally, you teach how God, with a mighty hand, delivered the children of Israel out of bondage in Egypt and took them through the sea on dry ground. This is a timeless story of God's love for His people and His desire that they be free from bondage to serve Him.

Biblical Calendar

Grapevine Studies has created a unique calendar combining our Gregorian calendar with the biblical calendar. With this calendar you will learn the names and pronunciations of the biblical months, each day contains the Gregorian date along with the biblical date.

Using biblical references, Christian tradition, and Jewish history events have been stick figured onto the calendar. You will see events referenced in Scripture like never before!

Wall Calendar - The wall calendar can be hung on the wall as an easy way to discover what biblical events took place each month. This engaging calendar will not only educate but serve as a conversation starter in your family, church, or office.

Calendar Notes- In addition to the notes on the wall calendar, this booklet provides even more information. More events, website references, and scripture passages and included in this companion booklet. A great study tool for all ages!

Timelines

Old Testament Timeline Booklets

Old Testament Timeline

Beginning with Creation through the rebuilding of the walls by Nehemiah, your students stick figure chronologically through the Old Testament, learning the major characters and events. As your students stick figure the timeline, they also learn how the books of the Bible relate to the timeline and the first two symbols used to explain the Gospel. Great for those times you need just a few lessons.

$4.50	$8.00	$3.60	$6.40	$9.60

Teaching Tip

When teaching the timeline for the first time, it is important to just introduce the character or event, but not each about that person or event. A great way to determine what you will need to cover in the coming lessons is to ask your students questions about what they remember about _____ (person or event).

Wall Timelines

Wall timelines are a great visual aid for any classroom. You can put up parts of the timeline as you learn it, or put up the entire Bible timeline. Students like the colorful reminder of how the characters and events of the Bible fit together. Students will also be reminded of the Gospel each time they look at the timeline. When your students show their parents or friends the timeline, they will be able to share the Gospel with them. Wall timelines give students a panoramic view of the Bible. Choose one or both for your classroom!

Teaching Tip

It is fun to have older students research dates and include them on their timeline. For younger students, it is fun to draw the timeline on a piece of butcher paper. As you go teach each lesson, have students draw part of the story around the event on the timeline.

Catechism

Catechism is an ancient method of teaching by asking specific questions and responding with specific answers. Using this format, students will be sent on a treasure hunt to find the answers to these questions of biblical portions. Once found, students illustrate the answers through stick figures, helping them retain the answers to the questions. No prior knowledge of the Bible is required, making this the perfect study for new believers. Questions focus on obvious biblical facts, while leaving the deeper theology and church doctrine for parents and teachers to introduce as they work their way through these Bible Studies.

FAQ

For what denomination was Grapevine written?

Our studies teach Bible facts and leave application to the teacher. Our curriculum is currently used in a wide variety of denominations on six continents. Please see the Statement of Faith for Grapevine Studies.

What version of the Bible do I use with Grapevine?

You can use the Bible version of your choice. We recommend you use full translations, such as NASB, KJV, NKJV, ESV, etc. We do not recommend paraphrases such as Living, Message, or children's Bibles.

Where do I start? At the Beginner level?

Begin at or above the recommended age level for your students.

We recommend beginning with the Old Testament Overview Part 1. See chart on page 3.

Can I make copies of the student books?

No: if you are purchasing physical books, each student will need their own book.

Yes: If you are purchasing an eBook license.

You do not need both a book and an ebook. See chart on page 4.

What is the difference between books and ebooks?

Content: Is the same in both books and ebooks.

eBooks: You can save to your PDF version of the book to your mobile devices, laptop or computer and legally make copies according to your license.

Books: Come on quality 3 hole punched paper, ready for your notebook.

What is the Daily Schedule and Weekly Schedule?

Daily Schedule: Is designed for homeschool or family devotions use. It involves approximately one student page a day lesson and takes about 15-20 minutes to teach per day.

Weekly Schedule: Is designed for Sunday School or weekly Bible Study use. It involves all the pages of the lesson and takes approximately 45-55 minutes to teach per week.

Do I really need a teacher book?

Yes! The teacher books contains the stick figure drawings, lesson notes, and answers to review questions.

Scope and Sequence

Because our materials are flexible, it is not necessary to use these Bible studies in a particular sequence. However, we have listed below some possibilities.

Chronological

If you prefer to study the entire Bible chronologically, we suggest starting with the Old Testament Overview and then the New Testament Overview. We recommend starting your students at the age-appropriate level.

Seasonal

You may simply choose a study that correlates with a particular season of the year, such as a study of the Birth of Jesus during the Christmas season or a study of The Resurrection as you prepare for Easter.

Interest

You may want to choose a study based on your particular interests or the interests of your student(s). Our topical studies are fun to use between studies or for a summer Bible study.
