- Lesson Pages 1 and 2 (30-35 minutes)
- Student Drawing Page (5-15 minutes)

Before Class

Lesson Preparation: Nothing can replace the time a teacher spends in prayer with our Master Teacher, the Lord God Almighty. We also recommend you read the Scriptures and lesson notes before class.

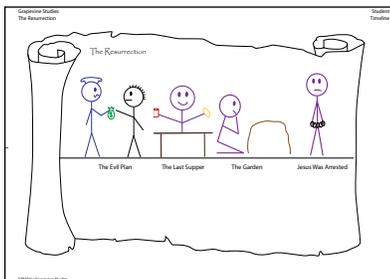

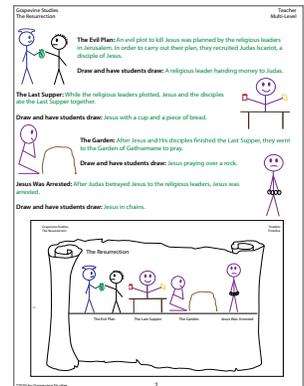

Supplies needed for teaching:

- Bible
- Dry erase board or chalk board
- Dry erase markers or chalk
- Colored pencils
- Lesson pages for each student
- Bible Dictionary
- Atlas of the Bible Lands

Teaching the Timeline

Teacher Narrative: The teacher narrative in green explains the necessary information that will need to be taught at each point on the timeline. These notes are a guide, but for a new teacher they can even be read to the students if desired. It is important that you just introduce the order of events to your students since they will learn more about each character and event in the lessons. I would caution against trying to give too much information or teaching details about individual points on the timeline.

Timeline: Students will begin each book by learning the timeline. The timeline is a fun and interactive way to give students the big picture of what they will be learning in this study. Teachers will simply introduce each point on the timeline, not teach each point. Every point on the timeline will be further explained and studied within the lessons. This is also a great opportunity for teachers to learn what students know about the characters and events in the study.

Teaching the Lessons

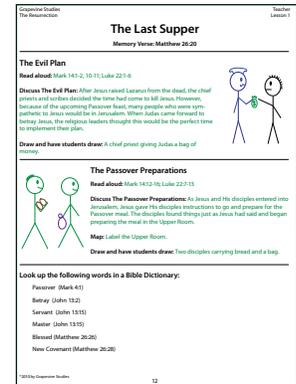

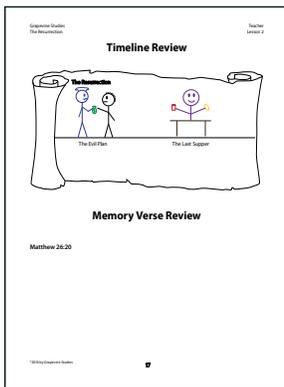

Teacher Notes: The teacher notes, in green. They explain the important information that will need to be covered in that section of the lesson. These notes will also be helpful for substitute teachers and can even be read to the students if desired.

Timeline Review Page

Timeline Review: Students will begin each lesson, except Lesson 1, by reviewing the last three characters or events on the timeline. The timeline review is designed to set the context for the current lesson. The titles for each character or event will be given to the students, and they will need to draw the appropriate picture above the title. It is recommended that every two or three lessons you review the entire timeline, up to the point of your current lesson, with your students. Students love this challenge, and it helps them to memorize the timeline.

Memory Verse Review: After students have reviewed the timeline, then they will review up to three previous memory verses. This review can be done verbally or by having the students write out the verses. Some students use a combination of speaking, writing, and stick figuring to memorized their verses.

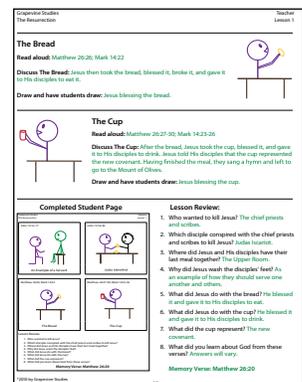

The Lesson

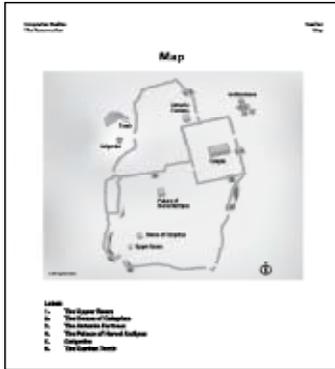

Stick Figuring: As or after the Scripture is read, the teacher will stick figure that portion of Scripture onto the board. While students are drawing, teachers can discuss that portion of Scripture. Students can either draw what the teacher has drawn or draw their own interpretations of the Scripture section. We encourage the use of colors and creativity. We have found that the more the students draw, the more they remember. Some older students may opt to take notes in this section.

Lesson Review: This section gives teachers the questions and answers for the lesson review. These questions cover the who, what, when, where, why, and how of the lesson. Notice that the last question is the application question for the lesson. The answer to this question will depend upon what the Lord has led you, the teacher, to emphasize in the lesson – answers may vary. Teachers may also want to add their own questions as they feel led.

Application: At Grapevine Studies, we believe that teachers determine how to apply each lesson. We encourage our teachers to spend time in prayer to determine what emphasis to put on that lesson. We have found this gives our teachers great freedom and is very effective. Notice that the last question is the application question for the lesson. The answer to this question will depend upon what the Lord has led you to emphasize in the lesson.

Mapping

Map: As part of the study you will periodically do some mapping. The map for both teachers and students are found in the back of their respective books. Mapping assignments are given within the teacher notes.

Student Drawing Page

Student Drawings: This page is designed to allow students to review what they have learned by drawing. Encourage your students to be very creative and detailed on this page. This will help you and your students to see what they have learned.

Memory Verse: At the bottom of this page, we have left room to write out and/or stick figure the memory verse, however, it can also be done verbally.

The Evil Plan
